Professional Summary

I am a freelance drummer and have been working in the Music Industry professionally for several years. I have done lots of work for weddings and corporate events including playing drums at major sporting dinners/award ceremonies etc. I have worked for an international cruise ship orchestra in the USA and have toured Australia performing in many different bands/styles. I have worked as a drum teacher for over 10 years, tutoring both young and mature age students and I have also conducted a guest lecture at Southern Cross University. I am endorsed by Ludwig Drums Australia, Evans Drumheads and Promark drumsticks.
